

2007

Florida International Business Summit

“Trade, Logistics and Transportation”

Tuesday, February 6, 2007

University Center at the University of North Florida
12000 Alumni Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32224

9:00 am - 4:30 pm

Who should attend?

- Everyone who wants to increase their understanding of the evolving aspects of global trade - to capitalize on opportunities, to overcome challenges, and to build a network of resources for success

Topics include:

- Growth Opportunities: The Best Trade Sectors for Today and Tomorrow
- Florida's Trade Boom: Managing the Impacts to Infrastructure
- Regional Market Development: Trends to Trade Agreements
- Rising to the Challenges of the Evolving Global Economy
- Contribution of Higher Education to International Business

Confirmed speakers include:

- The Honorable John Peyton, Mayor of Jacksonville
- Nancy Soderberg, Former U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations
- Mark Rosenberg, Chancellor, State University System of Florida
- John Adams, President, Enterprise Florida, Inc.
- Antonio Villamil, CEO, The Washington Economics Group

Registration & agenda available online!

www.doce-conferences.ufl.edu/FIBS

- Early Registration (by January 26, 2007)
Individual - $95      Student - $20
- Late Registration (after January 26, 2007)
Individual - $125      Student - $30

Questions? Contact Ana Portocarrero at anap@ufic.ufl.edu or (352) 846-2769

Collaborating Organizations: Jacksonville Regional Chamber of Commerce, U.S. Department of Commerce - Commercial Service - Jacksonville, and the Florida Network for Global Studies